

2001 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Case Gabel

Case Gabel, from LaSalle, is the recipient of the Weld County 4-H Agriculture, and Helmut Brunner Memorial scholarships. He is a 10-year member with the Valley Ag club. Case was high individual at the state 4-H livestock judging contest last year, and also garnered the Champion All-Around Showman award at the County Fair. Case is graduating from Valley High School where he was an All-State running back in football, 4-time All Conference and 2-time state placer in wrestling, and a member of FFA, FBLA, Student Council, NHS, and the Valley Singers. He plans to attend Colorado State University, studying Ag Business and Animal Science.

Angela Hoffner

Angela Hoffner, from Windsor, is a 9-year 4-H member with the Severance 4-Corners club where market swine and field crops were her main projects. She is a freshman at Colorado State University, majoring in computer information systems. After receiving her degree, she hopes to work in the information technology department for a major company. Angela is the recipient of the Ben Wilson Memorial 4-H scholarship.

Jason Liess

Jason Liess, from Greeley, is a senior at Greeley Central High School, where he participated in soccer, track, and wrestling. He is a 10-year member with Clover Sensations 4-H, where model rocketry, entomology, and shooting sports were his main projects. He enjoys fishing, hunting and golfing, and plans to attend Colorado State University this fall. Jason is the recipient of the Weld County 4-H Foundation, and Josh Jarman Memorial scholarships.

Jennifer Lockman

Jennifer Lockman, from Kersey, was awarded the Weld County 4-H Home Economics scholarship. She is a senior at Platte Valley High School where she is the editor-in-chief of the yearbook, and a member of Student Council, NHS, and FCCLA. She is a 10-year member with the Bits & Spurs club, taking sewing, market lambs, and market & breeding swine. She enjoyed participating in 4-H Fashion Revue where she twice won the senior grand champion award. Jennifer will attend the University of Northern Colorado, majoring in Elementary Education.

2001 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Adam Martin

Adam Martin, from Milliken, will attend Colorado State University following graduation from Roosevelt High School in Johnstown. He will be in the CSU Honors Program, majoring in History. Adam is the national winner of the American History scholarship given this year by the Daughters of the American Revolution. At school, Adam is the President of National Honor Society and vice-president of his senior class. He also participates in FBLA, FCA, Knowledge Bowl, basketball and track. Adam is a 10-year member of the Milliken Pacesetters 4-H club, with entomology and model rocketry as his main projects. Adam is the recipient of the Paul Hoshiko Jr., Memorial Scholarship.

Kim Nelson

Kim Nelson, from Milliken, is a 10-year member of the Milliken Pacesetters 4-H where she took Macrame and Decorate your Duds projects. She exhibited the grand champion macrame project at the county fair last year. Kim is a senior at Roosevelt High School where she ran track and cross country, and was active in FBLA, FCA, Student Council and NHS. She was awarded the Kenneth & Clarice Benson Memorial Scholarship, and will attend Colorado State University, majoring in physical therapy.

Nicole Nelson

Nicole Nelson, from Eaton, has taken a wide variety of projects during her 10 years as a member of the Eaton Country Critters 4-H club. She served on the 4-H executive council four years, and is the District II vice-president. Nicole has also served on the Fair Board, and was the chair of the Junior Jamboree and Fair Pop Stand committees. She is a senior at Eaton High School, where she is in the mentoring program and is a tutor for Algebra. She plans on taking general studies at Colorado State University. Nicole received the Weld County 4-H Foundation Scholarship.

Jessica Peterson

Jessica Peterson, from Eaton, is attending Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, double majoring in Animal Science and Biotechnology. Jessica won the State Star Farmer award with FFA last year, and stays involved with FFA through the Post Secondary Ag Program. She is a graduate of Eaton High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society. Jessica completed her 10-year membership in 4-H last year. She is the recipient of the Norgren Family 4-H scholarship.

2001 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Kerrie Rauh

Kerrie Rauh, from Windsor, plans to attend Emporia State University in Kansas, to study metal smithing. She was named as a recipient of the Presidential Award from the University. She is a senior at Windsor High School, and is a six-year member of the Severance 4-Corners 4-H club. Kerrie is involved in Decorate your Duds and Heritage Arts projects. In school, she participates in swimming, cross-country and track, FBLA and Key Club. Kerrie is the winner of a Weld County 4-H Foundation scholarship.

Rebecca Smith

Rebecca Smith, from Hereford, is attending East Wyoming College in Torrington where she is pursuing a vet technician degree. Becky graduated from Pawnee High School in Grover where she was a member of FFA, the National Honor Society, and Student Council. She received the Star District Farmer award in FFA this year, and is nominated for the State Star Farmer award. A 10-year member of 4-H, Becky was a member of the Youth Executive Council, and took dairy, junior leadership, and vet science projects. Becky was named the recipient of the Martin Produce scholarship.